

IMMERSIVE, HIGH-QUALITY TRAINING CONTENT

Engaging Content to Change Behaviors

Breaking through the noise and delivering security content that will educate and entertain your workforce is a key value of Living Security. With binge-worthy, streaming-like production, training is presented in a dynamic and interactive style to keep participants engaged and boost the retention of critical security topics.

Keep Participants Engaged

Draw in every person across your workforce with a modern, streaming app-like experience. Interactive security content holds participants' attention as if they were watching the latest trending series, which ensures active participation and longer retention.

Choose From a Wide Range of Content Types

Find the exact content needed in our always-evolving Content Catalog. Select from full series to bite-sized content and gamified learning puzzles that deliver critical security training to reach people with a variety of learning styles.

Risk-based, Role-based, and Annual Training

Select the content that perfectly matches your training initiative and audience. Living Security's content can be tailored to fulfill a variety of training course requirements that align with critical security program needs.

We used Living Security's Escape [CyberEscape Online] and I highly recommend them! This was a completely flawless, extremely engaging, and enjoyable event (for all of us). Everyone left laughing and educated, which will do wonders for our compliance-focused culture.
